Midsouth Consulting Group Wins National Award

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nashville, TN—Monday, August 20, 2007: Midsouth Consulting Group's Payroll Services Division has been named 2007 "Rookie of the Year" by the Independent Payroll Providers Association (IPPA), a national association of privately held companies that provide payroll services for employers.

The "Rookie of the Year" award is presented to a member company that has achieved above-average performance in growth, client retention and profitability. To be considered for the award, companies must be members of the IPPA for less than 12 months and have more than three years of experience in the payroll industry. 25 companies competed for the award in 2007.

"This honor means a lot because it comes from industry peers," said Jason Poling, Managing Partner of Midsouth Consulting Group's Payroll Division, who accepted the award at the IPPA annual conference in Denver on August 3. "It's confirmation that our customer-focused approach to payroll outsourcing is getting results."

Midsouth Consulting Group provides payroll processing, retirement plan administration and human resources outsourcing solutions for more than 800 clients nationwide from offices at 3011 Armory Drive in Nashville. For more information, call 615.467.7090 or visit www.midsouthpayroll.com.
